Assignment Tutorial	23 May 19	12.00 – 13.00
Assignment Submission	24 June 19

Please note: this is not a residential course and accommodation is not included

Aim:

A qualification programme designed to provide team leaders and managers with the knowledge, skills and confidence to mentor/coach people as part of their normal working role. The course provides a good foundation for those new to mentoring/coaching or for more experienced mentors/coaches wishing to refine their techniques and gain a nationally recognised qualification

Supervision is an essential part of the ILM qualification and each participant is allocated 2 hours with a Supervisor to be used proactively and periodically in line with individual needs and in agreement with the Supervisor. Supervision can take the form of one to one meetings (if you travel to your Supervisor), telephone conversations, email or Skype interaction. You need to demonstrate in your assignments that this has been completed and be able to meet the assessment criteria relating to supervision.

Content:

- The coaching/mentoring continuum
- Establishing your coaching/mentoring baseline
- Introduction to the GROW model and other coaching models
- Asking powerful questions
- An overview of learning theory
- Personal development and emotional intelligence
- Contracting, expectations, process, ethics, code of practice and boundaries
- Coaching/Mentoring skills, qualities and techniques
